Dear Football Fans:

On behalf of our title sponsor SRS Distribution and everyone at our bowl game, I welcome you to tonight's Las Vegas Bowl XXXIII, this time held in the heart of the holidays.

Our city has rightly earned the moniker of Sports & Entertainment Capital of the World and we are proud to have been a big part of that becoming reality through growing this game for more than three decades. From that first version at the Silver Bowl in 1992 to gathering this Friday night inside a $2 billion state-of-the-art desert palace known as Allegiant Stadium, the Las Vegas Bowl is recognized as a jewel in our community's annual calendar.

Our matchup this season welcomes back a team we just saw four months ago as USC makes a quick return after beating LSU in the Modelo Vegas Kickoff Classic right here at Allegiant Stadium on September 1. The Trojans, now of the Big Ten, are in our bowl game for the third time overall while on the other side is a newcomer from a powerhouse conference as Texas A&M from the SEC plays in the Silver State for the first time ever.

But as is tradition, our bowl is about more than football and I want to recognize our many charity partners: The Just One Project, Extra Yard for Teachers, and DREAM Foundation. Also, a nod to our wonderful bowl week hosts at the Fremont Street Experience and Buca di Beppo for our Welcome Reception, Downtown Summerlin and Howard Hughes Corporation, Spago by Wolfgang Puck, Sphere Las Vegas and our community service event sponsor Aristocrat Gaming, our Pep Rally sponsor Coca-Cola, and Kickoff Luncheon sponsor Toyota.

A big Thank You to our host hotels – Virgin Hotels Las Vegas and Mandalay Bay/Delano and South Point -- for providing great hospitality to the participating teams, marching bands, their fans and tonight's game officials.

As always, I must include a note of heart-felt appreciation to the Las Vegas Convention and Visitors Authority for its endless commitment to this event. To every member of our Bowl Committee, as well as The Huddle – thank you for all of your hard work and dedication to putting on a first-class event. Special recognition goes to Committee President Rob Dondero, Committee Game Chair Kristi Staab, Huddle President Mary Alice Rasmuson and Huddle Game Chair Leslie Forman.

We call our event The Vegas Show on Earth, so here's to a great one between the Aggies and Trojans – and a very Happy New Year to all!

It is always such an honor to serve on the SRS Distribution Las Vegas Bowl Committee and our ever-increasing organizing group was delighted to host our two teams and their fans in our city this week, and especially at our beautiful Allegiant Stadium for today's big game.

We are excited to serve as home to only the fourth-ever meeting, and first since 1977, between these programs that hail from two major markets in such different parts of the country. It's one of the major features that make bowl games like ours so much fun.

We'd like to give a big shoutout to all the great fans of the Trojans and Aggies who made the trip to our city! All of us on the Las Vegas Bowl Committee thank you for being here and send our best holiday wishes to you and your families. Here's to another great game to wrap up the Best Bowl Week in the business!

In 2017, a small group of sports-minded women came together to launch the Las Vegas Bowl Huddle. Created to support the overall mission of the Las Vegas Bowl in the community, the Huddle focuses annually on elevating the bowl's presence in the market through community activations, VIP hospitality and memorable bowl week experiences for both teams and fans

Today, the Huddle is over 40 strong and continues to grow its commitment to the Las Vegas community on a year-round basis. Whether it be through the Extra Yard for Teachers Grant Program or the Youth Football Ambassadors Program the Huddle is dedicated to using the platform of the nationally televised bowl game to better our community. Come bowl week, this amazing group of women are proud to showcase our home, The Sports and Entertainment Capital of the World, to the participating teams through curated VIP experiences, a memorable Ladies Day and more.

HEAD COACH LINCOLN RILEY

USC Record: 25-14 (.641) (3rd year)

Lincoln Riley is one of the nation’s most successful coaches. He’s had more success by the age of 40 than any other head coach in college football history. Riley has been a head coach for 7 seasons and has developed 3 of the last 7 Heisman Trophy winners. Riley is the only head coach to coach 3 Heisman winning quarterbacks, as well as the only coach to have 3 quarterbacks selected No. 1 overall in the NFL Draft.

In his first season as USC’s head coach in 2022, the 39-year-old led the Trojans to have equaled the biggest one-season victory turnaround (+7 victories) in USC history (USC’s 1962 national champs won 11 games after winning just 4 in 1961). Riley tied the record for most victories by a first-year head coach (tied with John Robinson in 1976). Riley’s Trojans went 11-3 in 2022 to bring USC back to the top of the college football landscape. Riley guided the Trojans to a Pac-12 Championship appearance and to a Cotton Bowl appearance.

Under Riley’s tutelage in 2022, quarterback Caleb Williams earned Pac-12 Offensive Player of the Year honors and was named the 88th recipient of the Heisman Trophy. In addition to winning college football’s most prestigious award, Williams also garnered national player of the year honors by several services. Defensive lineman Tuli Tuipulotu was the Pac-12 Defensive Player of the Year. Both Tuipulotu and Williams were Unanimous First Team All-Americans, USC’s first since 2012. Offensive linemen Brett Neilon and Andrew Vorhees and defensive back Calen Bullock were also named First Team All-Americans. Riley’s 5 First Team All-Americans were the most in a single season since 2007.

His 2023 Trojans went 8-5 and 5-4 in Pac-12 play. Riley’s high-powered brand of offense, led by defending Heisman Trophy winner quarterback Caleb Williams, put up points all season resulting in USC ranking No. 3 in the nation in scoring offense (41.8). Williams was selected as the No. 1 pick in the 2024 NFL Draft by the Chicago Bears. In addition to being the only head coach to tutor three Heisman Trophy winning quarterbacks, Riley now holds the record for most quarterbacks coached who have been selected at No. 1 all-time (Baker Mayfield in 2018, Kyler Murray in 2019 and Williams in 2024).

The Trojans wrapped up the 2023 season with a thrilling Holiday Bowl victory as quarterback Miller Moss stepped in leading the Trojans to defeat No. 16 Louisville 42-28. Moss, the Holiday Bowl Offensive MVP, threw 6 touchdown passes setting the record for most touchdown passes thrown in a Holiday Bowl, and most touchdown passes thrown in a USC bowl game. Seven total Trojans were drafted in 2024, marking the most USC players drafted since 2011.

In 2024, USC's first season as a member of the Big Ten Conference, Riley guided the Trojans to a 6-6 record and 4-5 mark in conference play. Three Trojans earned AP All-Big Ten honors - OL Emmanuel Pregnon, RB Woody Marks and P Eddie Czaplicki. Czaplicki earned numerous All-America honors and was named the Ray Guy Award winner as the nation's top punter. With a berth in the SRS Distribution Las Vegas Bowl, Riley will take the Trojans to their 58th all-time bowl appearance.

Riley posted a 55-10 overall record in his five years (2017-21) at Oklahoma for an impressive .846 winning percentage. His Sooners were 37-7 (.841) in league play and won Big 12 championships in his first four years there as he became the first person to win outright Football Bowl Subdivision conference crowns in each of his first four seasons as a collegiate head coach.

Riley took over as the Sooners' head coach in 2017 when Bob Stoops retired. He was the youngest FBS head coach (33) at the time of his hiring. Riley led his initial Oklahoma squad to a 12-2 overall record in 2017. The Sooners won the Big 12 title by going 8-1, and played in the CFP semifinal in the Rose Bowl. Quarterback Baker Mayfield won the Heisman Trophy that season, and was the No. 1 pick of the 2018 NFL Draft.

Oklahoma was again 12-2 overall and 8-1 while winning the Big 12 championships in 2018 and 2019. He was the Big 12 Co-Coach of the Year in 2018. Quarterback Kyler Murray won the 2018 Heisman Trophy, and was the No. 1 selection in the 2020 NFL Draft, while quarterback Jalen Hurts was the Heisman runner-up in 2019. The Sooners appeared in the Orange Bowl in 2018 and Peach Bowl in 2019, both CFP semifinals. In the COVID-impacted 2020 season, Oklahoma went 9-2 overall, won the Big 12 at 6-2, beat Florida in the Cotton Bowl. In 2021, the Sooners were 10-2 in the regular season, tied for second in the Big 12 standings at 7-2.

Riley spent 2015 and 2016 as Oklahoma's offensive coordinator and quarterbacks coach. Riley came to Oklahoma after five seasons (2010-14) as the offensive coordinator and quarterbacks coach at East Carolina. The Pirates, running a spread offensive scheme, set more than 50 team and individual school offensive records during his time there.

East Carolina quarterback Dominique Davis was the 2010 Conference USA Newcomer of the Year and set school records for career completions and TD passes. He completed an NCAA record 36 consecutive passes in 2011. He was succeeded by Shane Carden, who broke many of Davis' record. Riley was a walk-on quarterback at Texas Tech in the spring and summer of 2003 before starting his coaching career as a student assistant there under head coach Mike Leach for three seasons (2003-05), working with the offense.

He became an offensive graduate assistant at Texas Tech in 2006, then joined the Red Raiders' fulltime staff in 2007. In 2009, he called plays as the interim offensive coordinator in the Alamo Bowl, producing 579 yards of offense. His wide receiver Michael Crabtree won the 2007 Biletnikoff Award while establishing Big 12 and NCAA freshman records with 134 receptions for 1,962 yards. The Red Raiders played in a bowl in each of his seven seasons and Tech quarterbacks won NCAA passing titles in 2003, 2004, 2005 and 2007. Riley received his bachelor's degree in exercise and sports science from Texas Tech in 2006.

He was born on Sept. 5, 1983, in Lubbock, Tex. He and his wife, Caitlin, have two daughters, Sloan and Stella. His younger brother, Garrett, is the offensive coordinator at Clemson.

HEAD COACH MIKE ELKO

Career Record: 24-13 (.649) (3rd year)
Texas A&M Record: 8-4 (.667) (1st year)

Mike Elko was named the head football coach at Texas A&M University on Nov. 27, 2023, returning to Aggieland after spending two seasons as the head coach at Duke. The former Texas A&M defensive coordinator also made stops at Notre Dame and Wake Forest prior to his time with the Maroon & White.

In his first season as a head coach, Elko was named the 2022 ACC Coach of the Year as Duke finished 9-4 complete with a bowl victory over UCF in the Military Bowl, the program's first bowl game appearance since 2018. The Blue Devils boasted one of the best rushing defenses and offensive lines in the country that season. On defense, they gave up just 120.9 yards per game and 10 touchdowns on the ground, standing as the only school in the ACC to allow 10-or-fewer rushing touchdowns on the year. The offensive line kept its quarterback protected, ranking 12th among Power 5 schools allowing just 17.0 sacks per game and was tied for seventh nationally giving up just 51.0 tackles for loss on the season. Elko guided Duke to back-to-back bowl games in year two, capping the year off at the Birmingham Bowl. The 2023 season saw the Blue Devils get off to a 4-0 start, including a 28-7 victory over then-No. 9 Clemson to begin the year before injuries took their toll and Duke finished the regular season 7-5. The Blue Devils again boasted an offensive line that ranked in the top-18 among Power 5 schools in sacks and tackles for loss allowed, while also sitting in 16th nationally as a defense, giving up just 19.0 points per game.

Prior to his time in Durham, Elko served as the defensive coordinator and safeties coach in Aggieland from 2018-21, helping Texas A&M finish with four straight bowl trips and an overall record of 34-14 (.708).

The 2021 season saw Elko's defense rank 14th in the nation giving up just 327.5 yards of offense per game, while also boasting the No. 3 scoring defense. The Aggies allowed opponents to score just six rushing touchdowns all year, which was good for second in the country. Texas A&M also ranked No. 9 in pass efficiency defense, No. 7 in red zone defense and No. 12 in total sacks. By season's end, Elko was a semifinalist for the Frank Broyles Award, which honors the nation's top assistant coach.

In 2020, the Aggies finished 9-1 following an SEC-only regular season slate with an Orange Bowl victory. Elko guided a veteran defense that led the SEC and was top-10 in the nation in total defense, also boasting the No. 3 ranking in the country in rushing defense. Before arriving at Texas A&M, Elko was the defensive coordinator at Notre Dame in 2017 and was a semifinalist for the Broyles Award as the Fighting Irish finished 10-3 with a win over LSU in the Citrus Bowl. Elko served three seasons (2014-16) as the defensive coordinator and safeties coach at Wake Forest under head coach Dave Clawson. His 2016 defensive unit finished in the top 20 in turnovers forced, sacks and scoring defense, as only four schools in the country could claim that honor and the other three teams qualified for the College Football Playoff (Alabama, Clemson, Washington).

Elko served as the defensive coordinator for head coach Clawson at Bowling Green from 2009-13. He coached linebackers from 2009-11 and then safeties in 2012 and 2013.

Prior to his stint at Bowling Green, Elko was the defensive coordinator at Hofstra from 2006-08, also working on Clawson's staffs at Richmond in 2004-05 and Fordham from 2002-03.

Elko first coordinated defense at the U.S. Merchant Marine Academy (2001) and he spent one season (2000) coaching defensive backs at his alma mater, Penn. Elko started his coaching career as a graduate assistant, coaching inside linebackers at Stony Brook (1999) and defensive backs in the spring of 2000. A native of South Brunswick, New Jersey, Elko graduated from Penn with a bachelor's degree in history in 1999. As a safety, he helped the Quakers to the 1998 Ivy League championship.

Elko is married to the former Michelle Madison and they are the parents of three children: Michael, Andrew and Kaitlyn.

LAS VEGAS BOWL HALL OF FAME

The SRS Distribution Las Vegas Bowl’s Hall of Fame welcomed its fourth class last year to help commemorate reaching the game’s 30-year milestone. The group was made up of college football’s all-time winningest starting quarterback, Kellen Moore (Player), the only head coach to go 4-0 in the bowl game, Chris Petersen (Coach), and former ESPN executive Pete Derzis (Contributor), who had a big hand in growing the game into its current form.

The Las Vegas Bowl Hall of Fame welcomes a class every five years but there is no time requirement to be eligible for induction. While there is no minimum or maximum amount of honorees in a class, inductees fall under the following categories: Player, Coach, Founder or Contributor.

The 2016 class welcomed Marshawn Lynch (Cal running back), Brent Musburger (broadcaster) and Rob Dondero (founder).

74 FIELDS WORTH OF FUN

The world-famous Las Vegas Strip is end zone after end zone of LET'S GO! Pick from world-famous attractions like the Fountains of Bellagio and the High Roller at The LINQ Hotel + Experience, stand in awe at the world's largest LED screen while enjoying an experience at the Sphere, or catch an iconic gondola ride at The Venetian Resort Las Vegas. Every yard of the Strip is an absolute must for any visitor.

Dining on Las Vegas Boulevard is a once-in-a-lifetime experience, and with acclaimed chefs at every hotel, each meal is an unforgettable culinary experience. You can also catch A-list acts all over the Strip, from Grammy winners like Bruno Mars at Park MGM or 50 Cent at Planet Hollywood. Have a cocktail in the glitz and glam of the Roaring Twenties at Gatsby's inside Resorts World. Shop from premium fashion brands and indulge in retail therapy at Grand Canal Shoppes at The Venetian/Palazzo and Fashion Show Las Vegas, or head to The Forum Shops at Caesars. From end to end, there's more than enough fun on the Strip.

THE GAME IS THE PREGAME

The game is just the start of the fun; in Vegas, it's the pregame for unparalleled nightlife. Choosing where to be on NYE weekend in Vegas, it's hard to go wrong. Catch Alesso and others at Marquee Nightclub in The Cosmopolitan of Las Vegas. You can see acts like Tiësto and Dom Dolla in LIV Nightclub at Fontainebleau. Catch five-time Grammy winner, Janet Jackson, on New Year's Eve at Resorts World. XS Nightclub at Encore at Wynn has The Chainsmokers ringing in the new year. No matter the venue, you can catch A-list performers for a memorable night after the game.

DOWNTOWN DOESN'T STOP

While Downtown Las Vegas embraces change, Fremont Street is where Vegas' original hotels have thrived since 1905. A new energy and vibrant culture have transformed the area into a hot spot for local entertainment.

Fremont Street Experience has famous and popular casinos like Golden Nugget and Circa. Catch Viva Vison's free, nightly music light shows on its massive LED canopy featuring 12.5 million lights and dance and sing along with the show at the top of each hour starting at 6 p.m. Make sure to see the Las Vegas Bowl Pep Rally, spotlighting marching bands from Texas A&M and the University of Southern California. This fan experience features both teams' bands, cheerleaders, mascots, and so much more for football fans. The excitement doesn't stop there. You can also go soaring 12 stories high on the SlotZilla Zipline for an elevated view of the downtown area.

If you can keep up, head to the Fremont East Entertainment District, home to downtown music clubs, lounges and bars. Fremont East also has some of the best handcrafted brews, restaurants, boutiques, and other arts and entertainment venues.

Don't forget to check out The Mob Museum; The Neon Museum, which is best to see at night; and The Smith Center for the Performing Arts, with The Nutcracker and Seth MacFarlane playing the week of the game. Hoping to shop till you drop? Check out the Arts District and Las Vegas North Premium Outlets.

TURN UP OFF-STRIP

Just off the Strip, the energy doesn't stop with the world's first experiential art and entertainment complex, AREA15. Here, you'll find 40,000 square feet filled with massive art installations; one-of-a-kind retail; and immersive activations like Meow Wolf's Omega Mart, a twisted shopping center with new technology, bars, eateries and so much more. If you want to take the weekend to a high-octane level, check out Dream Racing at the Las Vegas Motor Speedway, home to the largest and fastest collection of supercars. Get behind the wheel of your dream race car and fly down the track. If you're hoping for a slower speed, kick back and relax at Red Rock Casino Resort Spa with a rejuvenating spa treatment or stroll through Downtown Summerlin's shops.

If the great outdoors is where you want to pregame, then Vegas has more than enough options. Explore some of the attractions just outside the city. A few miles south, see Seven Magic Mountains, an art exhibit with seven looming, colorful, fluorescent totems towering 30 feet. Head 90 minutes northeast of Las Vegas to enjoy championship-level golfing and more in Mesquite. Valley of Fire State Park is world-renowned for its 40,000 acres of bright Aztec sandstone, petrified trees, and petroglyphs dating back more than 2,000 years. Another 30-minute drive from Las Vegas Boulevard is the famous Hoover Dam and Lake Mead, the largest man-made reservoir in the United States. In Vegas, there is more than enough to discover off the Strip.

No matter what you go for, go all out in Las Vegas.
